Out of Frame

Kingston Hidden Artist Collective
10 September – 4 October 2024

Kingston Arts Council (KAC) is excited to present Out of Frame, an exhibition by the Kingston Hidden Artist Collective (KHAC). Out of Frame will be on view in KAC's UNIT 115 exhibition space from 10 September – 4 October 2024, where members of the public can view, appreciate, and purchase unique artworks created by local talents.

Out of Frame presents a collection of works by artists who live on the outskirts of society, often unseen, unheard, and “out of frame”. This exhibition shines a light on the creativity and resilience of artists who navigate challenges including houselessness, mental health, and addiction crises. Out of Frame brings into focus and celebrates the unique artistic styles, voices, and presence of KHAC artists, offering a varied collection of beautiful and intriguing artworks in a variety of media. From whimsical paintings to thoughtful sketches, the exhibition invites viewers to connect with the artistic practices of creatives in our community who are often overlooked, and whose practices exist and are cultivated outside of conventional artistic spaces.

Kingston Hidden Artist Collective (KHAC) aims to empower artists in disadvantaged situations by providing an easier path to sustainable, self-generated income. By selling prints, original works, and other merchandise, hidden artists can build a brand for themselves and improve their economic standing. KHAC provides assistance to hidden artists in the form of marketing, logistics, and product production/delivery.
